Sunday 19th February Launch Day 2pm – 4pm at the Perranwell Centre

Come along for a fun filled afternoon to find out all about the show and get to meet everyone involved. We will be reading some of the script, singing some of the songs with Jason as well as learning some of the dances with Sam and of course we'll be doing lots crazy team games so that by the end of the session you'll definitely want to follow the yellow brick road!

Sunday 26th February Auditions! 2pm – 5pm at the Perranwell Centre

We will make this an enjoyable and fun experience and it will give you the chance to tell us what parts you would like to audition for. Don't be shy just show us what you can do so that you will be ready to shine on the stage as brilliant as Dorothy's Ruby Slippers.

If you would like more information or have any questions please email Sam Rogers the Director via the following email address: tinkerbellestar870@hotmail.com

Devoran Village Hall, Sunday 12th Feb 7.30

Seth Kriebel The Death of King Arthur

This is a new version of a very old story, an interactive twist on the enduringly popular tales of Arthur and his knights. Choose which parts of the story you want to hear: The bit about the sword in the stone? Lancelot & Guinevere? How Arthur dies? Or the other version of how Arthur dies? Sit back and enjoy or actively take part in the decisions that guide the story. Each show is unique, depending on the audience's choices... bringing a lost Britain back to life and asking what the old tales can tell us in these complicated times.

Seth Kriebel makes unusual theatre, often inspired by games and always guided by the idea that a story isn't worth anything without an audience.

Hall open 7pm, show 7.30pm
