Seth Kriebel The Death of King Arthur

This is a new version of a very old story, an interactive twist on the enduringly popular tales of Arthur and his knights. Choose which parts of the story you want to hear: The bit about the sword in the stone? Lancelot & Guinevere? How Arthur dies? Or the other version of how Arthur dies? Sit back and enjoy or actively take part in the decisions that guide the story. Each show is unique, depending on the audience's choices... bringing a lost Britain back to life and asking what the old tales can tell us in these complicated times.

Seth Kriebel makes unusual theatre, often inspired by games and always guided by the idea that a story isn't worth anything without an audience.
