'SOURCE' EXHIBITION

Art work inspired by Restronguet Creek and the two rivers leading into it.

EASTER SATURDAY 16TH APRIL
10am - 4pm

DEVORAN VILLAGE HALL

Catering by Sony's Cornish Kitchen

An artistic interpretation and celebration of Restronguet Creek and its source by tracing its two feeder rivers: the Carnon river and the Kennal.

A group of local artists have divided the creek from its source to where it joins the Fal into some forty Ordnance Survey grid squares. Each artist has explored a number of squares to provide a unique view of Restronguet Creek whether through painting, printmaking, ceramics or glass.

Light refreshments available.

Easter Sunday Sunrise Service of Worship
17th April

' Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!'

6am on Devoran Quay with Revd Karen and Jane Darlington LLM

On this holiest of days in the Christian calendar, we will start our morning with an Easter sunrise service.

We will celebrate the resurrection of Jesus, which speaks to Christianity's most fundamental belief: The Lord has risen, defeating death and bringing salvation and eternal life to everyone who puts their faith in him, whilst we watch the sun rise over Devoran Quay.

Please contact Revd Karen if you would like any more information: 01872 276 357
