Easter Intensive week

Get your child into swimming lessons!!

AGE: 4+

Lessons run at Truro school prep over the Easter (3rd – 6th April) and for just £28 for the week your child will receive 4 x 30 minutes lessons of well taught swimming.

This is a fantastic swimming pool, ideal for children who haven't learnt to swim, beginners and those seeking to improve stroke technique.

This intensive week is an ideal introduction for new or potential participants who are looking for regular swimming lessons.

It has been shown that children learn and retain new skills more easily over short, intensive periods of time. The week will be invaluable in improving confidence and technique as well as enabling swimmers to move to the next stage of swimming.

For more information and to book a space email us at squidletsswim@hotmail.com stating Intensive swimming course.

1856 Regatta Revival

Saturday 20th May 2023 4pm, at Devoran Quay

Some years ago the late Ralph Bird, Boatbuilder, who lived and worked at Carnon Mine, researched a regatta called the Devoran, Point & Perranwharf Regatta, held in 1856. It was his wish to recreate this event, (as much as possible allowing for silting of the river), and he left a hand drawn map and written details of how the racing was held, see below.

In Ralph's honour, and to honour the history of boat building, and racing in our villages, Devoran Pilot Gig Club are holding a Victorian regatta for 6-oared gigs, 4-oared gigs and skiffs to be held on Saturday 20th May 2023 at 4pm.

For racing this is to be an invitation only event due to the length of race and safety of numbers, however we hope the village communities will join in and watch from vantage points from Devoran Quay to Point Quay and enjoy some entertainment and refreshments.

The regatta will be Victorian themed, and period dress will be encouraged.

T. EVANS, Surgical and Mechanical Dentist, of T. Evans House, Tenby, begs to inform the Residents of Porthcreek and the vicinity that he has accordingly. The committee, considering the circumstances, awarded the crew of the staves ten shillings.

The races which next followed, were rowing matches, and all started from the moorings at Devoran. The course for the gigs and rowing boats was:—From the moorings at Devoran round the boat in Penzance creek, thence back past a boat opposite Narabo Wharf, (leaving it on the larboard hand) through the Gap to Perran Wharf Channel, round a boat in Perran Wharf creek, thence back round the boat at Devoran, opposite the Stairs, (passing each time on the east side of the Pole at the Gap leading to Perran Wharf Channel), and to the starting boat—leaving all other marks on the starboard hand.
The length of the course is about 4 miles, and a better and prettier course for rowing matches, could not be selected. From the terrace, and greater number of houses in Devoran, the races could be seen nearly throughout the whole course.
The first race was between three four-oared gigs, rowed by amateurs, all from Truro, and a very good race came off; two prizes only were awarded, as three gigs only started. The first boat, the Maid of the Mill, won easily, but the second, the Waterwitch, was of a heavier description, which, of course, made some difference in the chance of winning. The crews of both the winning gigs looked far more like professionals than amateurs, and showed in strong contrast to the crew of the Tenzer, who were no match for their more muscular competitors. The crew of the Tenzer rowed well, and but for an accident depriving them of the best rower (Mr. Sharpe), would no doubt have obtained a much better position.
The next race was for four prizes for ships' boats, and was a most exciting and spirited contest; in fact, it was the race
